   i. Grant-in-Aid released to authorities, corporations, companies, autonomous bodies, and other similar entities managing their expenditure independently without operating through the day-to-day payment and accounting counter of the Accountant General, Gilgit-Baltistan, and utilizing such funds for investment and revenue-generating activities in accordance with their approved mandate/policies.

   ii. In cases involving funds governed under investment policies duly approved by the Government, including Endowment Funds and other similar funds operating under notified policy frameworks.

   iii. In unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the procuring agency and not caused due to any act, omission, or delay on its part; provided that planned or scheduled calendar events shall not fall under this category.

   iv. In cases where advance release/payment is required under donor funded, federally funded, or externally assisted projects in accordance with approved financing agreements or project documents.

   v. In cases where advance payment is unavoidable under contractual obligations, statutory requirements, or international procurements/activities where advance payment is mandatory under the terms and conditions of the foreign/local supplier, company, organization, or host country/organization.

   vi. Advance drawal shall not be allowed for calendar events. Departments shall select vendors for such events at the beginning of the financial year, as per applicable procurement rules.

9. Long Term Advances: - In order to ensure transparent and efficient management of Long-Term Advances admissible to Government employees, a comprehensive mechanism/policy for sanction, disbursement, regulation, and recovery of such advances shall be formulated by the Finance Department. The following general conditions shall apply for processing and regulation of Long-Term Advances: -

   i. Long Term Advances shall only be admissible to regular Government employees having completed minimum ten (10) years continuous regular service with satisfactory service record. Employees having remaining service of five (05) years or less up to the date of superannuation shall not be eligible for such advances.

   ii. Employees having remaining service of more than five (05) years but less than ten (10) years shall be allowed Long Term Advances subject to fixation of installments by the AG Office in a manner that the entire principal and mark-up/interest is fully recovered before retirement. Any outstanding recovery at the time of retirement, for any reason whatsoever, shall be deducted from the retirement benefits of the employee and credited into the relevant recovery Head of Account.

   iii. An employee shall not ordinarily be eligible to avail a new Long Term Advance until previous advance has been fully recovered or adjusted. However, advance of differential amount may be allowed in cases where substantial increase in Basic Pay has occurred due to promotion, pay revision, or annual increments, subject to repayment capacity and verification by the Finance Department/AG Office.

iv. House Building Advance (HBA) shall be admissible to all employees on the basis of 36 running basic pays of the applicant at the time of submission of application, and the amount so sanctioned shall be recoverable in 120 equal monthly installments from the salary of the beneficiary employee.

v. Motor Car Advance (MCA) shall be admissible to Government employees in BS-16 and above on the basis of 24 running basic pays of the applicant at the time of submission of application, and the amount so sanctioned shall be recoverable in 120 equal monthly installments from the salary of the beneficiary employee.

vi. Motorcycle Advance shall be admissible to Government employees in BS-1 to BS-15, subject to a maximum ceiling of Rs. 300,000, and the amount so sanctioned shall be recoverable in 60 equal monthly installments from the salary of the beneficiary employee.

vii. Applications for Long Term Advances shall be submitted through a dedicated online portal to be launched by the Finance Department for this purpose. The portal shall contain prescribed application forms, eligibility criteria, and list of required documents. Applications shall only be submitted/forwarded by the concerned PAO/Administrative Department.

viii. The employee shall execute prescribed bond/undertaking on non-judicial stamp paper valuing Rs.100 for repayment and compliance with the conditions of the advance. Moreover, stamp papers equivalent to 0.75% of the sanctioned advance amount shall mandatorily be attached with the application; however, in case of e-stamp paper, copy of deposit challan shall also be attached.

ix. Administrative Departments/DDOs shall be responsible for monitoring recoveries and compliance of conditions relating to advances sanctioned to their employees.

x. Long Term Advances shall not be admissible on interest-free basis to any category or scale of Government employees. Mark-up/interest shall be charged and recovered at the rates applicable/notified by the Federal Government for the relevant period, and the Accountant General Gilgit-Baltistan shall ensure recovery accordingly through the prescribed payroll mechanism.

xi. The office of the Accountant General shall be responsible for effecting recoveries of principal amount and markup/interest through the payroll system. Separate Heads of Account shall be maintained for principal and markup/interest recoveries, which shall also be reflected separately in Monthly Civil Accounts/Final Accounts and shall furnish a monthly recovery report to Finance Department by 10th of each succeeding month.

xii. Budget allocation for Long Term Advances shall be released by the Finance Department on quarterly basis. The Regulation Wing of Finance Department shall issue Fund Availability Certificates (FACs) to the concerned Departments in accordance with the automatically generated and digitally maintained seniority/waiting list available on the dedicated portal against seventy percent (70%) of the allocated budget.

xiii. Up to thirty percent (30%) of the allocated budget may be utilized at the discretion of the Secretary Finance for priority/emergent cases on the recommendations of the concerned Administrative Department/DDO or higher authorities, against which FAC may be issued accordingly.

xiv. Upon issuance of FAC by the Finance Department, the concerned PAO or an authority delegated by the PAO shall sanction the Long Term Advance after verification of prescribed documents including salary slip, Rs.100 affidavit, required stamp papers/e-stamp challan, etc.

xv. Ceiling limits, markup/interest rates, installment structure, and other related conditions shall be regulated in accordance with policy/rules notified by Federal Government from time to time till separate policy/rules are notified by Government of Gilgit-Baltistan. Finance Department may, if required, issue detailed SOPs/guidelines regarding processing, verification, disbursement, and recovery mechanism of Long Term Advances.

Scanned with CamScanner

xvi. No advance shall be sanctioned unless budget provision exists under the relevant Head of Account, which shall be verified by the Finance Department before issuance of FAC and by the AG Office before processing/payment of the bill.

xvii. Misrepresentation of facts or default in repayment shall render employee liable to disciplinary action in addition to recovery under rules.

xviii. The above conditions/mechanism shall be incorporated in the Gilgit-Baltistan Financial Control and Budgeting Rules as permanent rules governing Long Term Advances admissible to Government employees, and the same shall continue to regulate sanction, disbursement, recovery, and ancillary matters unless amended, modified, or repealed by the competent authority in accordance with prescribed procedure.

xix. Any future amendment, addition, deletion, or modification in the above mechanism/conditions shall be made through amendment in Financial Control & Budgeting Rules with approval of the competent authority defined thereunder and shall accordingly be incorporated in these Rules through formal notification.

xx. Any matter not specifically covered under these conditions, or any issue arising during implementation, interpretation, disbursement, or recovery of Long Term Advances, shall be decided by the Finance Department and its decision thereon shall be final.

10. Regulation of expenditure under Employee Related Expenses (ERE):- Office of the Accountant General, in consultation with the Finance Department, shall ensure that expenditure incurred under ERE is strictly in accordance with updated Statement of New Expenditure (SNEs) and Organizational Management (OM) Module. Any payment of pay and allowances made against posts/scales not reflected or updated in approved SNEs and OM Module shall be deemed unauthorized and illegal, and responsibility thereof shall rest upon the concerned PAO and DDO.

11. Schedule of fee/charges:-

(1) New or revised Non-Tax Revenues, including any fee, levy, cess, or user charges approved by the Government in consonance with relevant law, as the case may be, and specified in Schedule-I of this act, shall come into force with effect from 1st July, 2026 and shall be enforced and collected by the respective Departments/Collecting Agencies under the prescribed Head of Account.
